A Word from the President

Happy Spring!!

No doubt you are as refreshed as I am to see green trees and blue skies after this past winter! And with the warm weather, we are excited about our upcoming neighborhood events: 3rd Annual Garden Tour, Community Planting Day, Annual Garage Sale, and our big Picnic Day and return of the 5K Walk/Run! Your Board of Trustees is currently working on grant proposals to help us continue to improve our neighborhood as well as the facilities at Jane Newcom Park. All these activities need YOU, our valued neighbors, to be successful. Here are a few simple things you can do to support our wonderful community:

- PAY YOUR DUES! Only $12 per year per household (additional donations accepted!)
- ATTEND our General meetings – just ONE hour every three months
- JOIN Neighborhood Watch – simply email BillKinzig@gmail.com
- RECYCLE with a large roll-out can – call 333-4800 if you need one
- REGISTER your Dorothy Lane Market Club card to benefit Patterson Park
- VOLUNTEER for one hour or more to help with a project
- PARTICIPATE in our neighborhood events!

To volunteer, please send an email to WeLovePattersonPark@gmail.com. Thank you for being part of our beautiful community!

Civic Association Receives Grant

Good News.. I received a letter today from Brian Fowles Community Program Specialist for the KMCB organization stating that we were selected this year to receive $996.68 to purchase materials as outlined in our grant application. Kathy Zaidain, Linda Fischbach and Donna Gau-Jata, and Christine Kemper conceived the tasks and did a GREAT job again writing that grant request. Congratulations!
